INFORMATION ON UNDERGRADUATE REGULAR/REPEAT END-SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS DECEMBER 2020

Students wishing to apply for undergraduate repeat end-semester examinations of the first, third and fifth semesters to be conducted in December 2020 may take note of the following points.

1. Registration for Repeat Examinations

Applicants must register themselves and provide correct and complete details in the link provided here: <https://forms.gle/yXpJApodSFfX7iva7>

The link for registration will be opened till 4 PM of 27 November 2020. No application will be accepted after the expiry of the given timeline.

Those who had applied for repeat end-semester examinations of the first, third and fifth semesters in the last semester (January – June 2020) must apply again in the link provided above. The application fee paid earlier will be adjusted for the upcoming repeat end-semester examinations in December 2020, and any amount in excess will be adjusted by way of deduction from either the second installment fee of the current semester or from the admission fee of the next semester.

2. Repeat Examination Fee

Repeat examination fee of Rs 200 per course will be charged from each applicant. Application fee need not be paid now. Application fee will be clubbed together with either the second installment fee of the current semester or the admission fee of the next semester.

3. Regular Students Need not Apply for Regular Courses

Students currently in first, third and fifth semesters do not need to apply for their respective regular courses.

4. Open-Book and MCQ Examinations

The end-semester examinations will be conducted in two phases: Online open-book descriptive examinations for 50 marks in December 2020 and online MCQ examinations for 20 marks in January 2021. Descriptive examination routine is attached herewith; MCQ examination routine will be notified later.
