Repeat Internal Examination Form Fillup – Even 2024

This notification informs all undergraduate and postgraduate students about the upcoming form fillup window for the Repeat Internal Examination.

Form Fillup Dates: 26 – 28 March 2024

Eligibility Criteria: Only students meeting the specified criteria can apply for the Repeat Internal Examination.

- Participation in College Approved Events: Students who missed the regular internal exam due to approved engagements such as inter-collegiate events, authorized training camps, or reasons sanctioned by the institution are eligible to apply. Applicants falling under this category are not required to pay examination fees, provided they attach official documents supporting their applications.
- Score Enhancement: Students who attended the regular internal exams and wish to improve their scores can also apply.
- Absence due to Personal Reasons: Students who were absent due to personal emergencies during the regular internal examinations may also apply. Such candidate must submit a separate application to the Controller of Examinations along with genuine supporting documents (e.g., medical certificates, authorised documents) for their absence. However, the Controller of Examinations reserves the right to deny or accept applications based on the genuineness of the presented cases.

Form Fillup Mode: Offline form submission. Collect forms from the General Section.

Examination Fee: Rs. 300 per course.

Repeat Internal Examination Dates: 9 – 12 April 2024

Applications will not be accepted after the last date for registration and fee payment.
